4th December. IN SUMMARY JUDISDICTION.

BEFORE MR. A. G. WISE, ACTING PUSNI

"MUSTARD AND Co. v. BRANDT, 103 SO."

Mr. Dennys appeared for the plaintiffs. This was a claim by a firm of storekeepers at Shanghai for balance of an account for goods sold and deliver d. Evidence had been tuken by commission at Shanghai. The defendant had had an account with the plaintiffs for a numb of years up to 1888. The defence set up was that a final settlement had been arrived at, also that the amount now claimed was in respect of the 1883 account, which was out of the jurisdiction of the Court on account of lapse of time His Lordship said that in face of the evidence taken on commission at Shanghai he could not think this claim was on account of goods supplied in 1883, nor that the $10 paid in June last was n final settlement. So Ayre v. Low ARWAL $100. Mr. Dennys appeared for the defendant.

This was a claim for false imprisonment. On the 23rd October last the plaintiff and fifteen others were charged before the Hon. H. E. Wodehouse at the Police Court with intimidating workmen, whereupon he was remanded to the 7th November, when he was released. The alleged intimidation arose out of a quarrel between contractors workmen at some houses being erected for Mr. Loung Ahvon at Wanchai. The differences between the parties have given rise to several previous cases, both civil and criminal. His Lord hip, after hearing the plaintiff, told him he had no case, and without calling upon Mr. Dennys gave judgment for the defendant.

FOOCHOW.

It is ramoured that in consequence of the expability of the several vessels that were constructed at the Arsenal at the Ancierage, the authorities are proposing to remove all the iron and other materials elsewhere and that the taking of stock is in progress. We give the news for what it is worth, and if such he the case, there will be a couple of thousand men thrown out of amployment. We regret to learn that the lottery called

IMPERIAL QUARTO. ENNGLISH AND CHINES DICTIONARY. WITH THE PUNTI AND MANDARIN PRONUNCIATION.

An Anglo-Chinese Dictionary, published at the Daily Press Office, Hongkong. For comprehensiveness and practical service this Work stands unrivalled. All the new words which the Chinese have of late years been compelled to coin to express the numerous, objects in machinery, photography, telegraphy, and in science generally, which the rapid advance of foreign relations has imposed upon them, are here given in extenso. Each and every word is fully illustrated and explained, forming exercises for students of a most instructive nature. Both the Court and Punti pronunciations are given the accents being carefully marked on the best. principle hitherto attained. The typography displays the success of an attempt to make the F EUCHS' TRADE LISTS OF ALL Chinese and English type correspond in the size > space, achieving a clearness not previously attained, and dispensing with those vast margins and vacant spaces which have heretofore characterised Chinese publications. To illustrate the vast scope of the work the alleged losses of such covers. Chalmers' Vocabulary contains about 16,000 HOURS OF CLOSING THE ENGLISH and Chinese Dictionary about 100,000, whilst
